

About Portfolio Skills Contact

Hi, My name is Leo.

Welcome to my Web page, if you're feeling frightened about what comes next, DON'T BE. Embrace the uncertainty and allow this web page to lead you places you've never been.

About Me

Greetings to all viewing my web page. I am a Upcoming Web Developer that is always seeking to learn and develop new skills as an individual. I spend a majority of my time on a PC, learning about new technology and how it functions. Outside my comfort zone, I tend to work out and stay in shape. My goal for this web page is to inspire young individuals to follow their dreams and become the best person they could possibly be.

Skills

- Front end web developer.
- Provide affective troubleshooting and remediation for web portfolios.
- Work well independently and within a team setting.
- Experienced in business dealing.
- Serving as an participant in the younglings program.
